Permits to wed were yesterday issued to F. M. Forward and Susie W. Morris, in Chicago's great journalistic field, is greetof Oakland; Henry W. Hameston and Emma Miller, of Mills county, and Hans Christiansen and J. Anderson, of Avoca.

In the circuit court some probate matters were attended to yesterday morning, and then adjournment was taken, out of respect to the memory of Capt. D. W. Price, whose funeral occurred in the atternoon.

The action of Hon. B. F. Clayton, of this county, in introducing a bill in the legislature similar to the Nebraska high license law, is causing much comment among his friends, and a variety of opinions are expressed.

Albert Roger now wants to be freed matrimonially from his wife, Addie Roger, to whom he was married in April, 1881, at Hiawaths, Kansas. He avows in his petition that she will not live with him, and so he naturally don't want such

John Murgle was arrested yesterday for refusing to pay for a glass of beer he had ordered in some saloon. He proved to be "the other fellew," and not the man wanted, and was turned loose again. Now he proposes to sue the saloon-keeper for $5,000 damages.

J. M. Palmer was yesterday taken quite ill with what seemed a slight apoplectic attack, and considerable alarm was felt by his friends. But he was resting easier last night, and his physician thinks that in a few days he will be out and about again.

Dick Holtz, of Kiel's hotel, said bones weren't high enough for Mr. Charles Keith's dog "Q," and brought him out a whole cooked chicken. The dog has an elegant mouth for chicken and we expect he is fed on pie, Mr. Keith thinking so much of the animal.

Rev. Mr. Mackey last Sunday night preached a sermon in which he talked very plainly against the idea of the preacher or priest being set apart from the people, and given a sort of dominion over them. He believed the preacher should be in common sympathy and contact with his people, so that by under-standing them and their lives better, he could be a greater helper.

John M. St. John & Co., the well known dealers in butter, eggs, poultry and fruit, have decided to embark in the commission business for the handling of consignments of fruit and produce. With an established and extensive trade, and with a well earned reputation for enterprise and integrity they will doubtless have no difficulty in extending their

He will probably be confined to his house for a week or two, but if he gets off that easily he has great reason for holding a special thankagiv. ing day all to himself.

The Omaha capitalist who was to erect a mamunoth skating rink here, lit by the electric light, and equaled only by the winter palace at St. Petersburg, has not shown up yet. A good skating rink is wanted and will pay.

Mr. Lawler's many friends will be glad to learn he is again convalescent.

WHO WILL DO IT?

The Cost of Paving Between the Rails of the Street Car Track.

The street car company, which is now controlled by the Union Pacific railway company, will have a nice little bill to pay for paving the street between the rails. It is estimated that the cost of the granite pavement ordered by the N. SCHURZ. council will amount to $24,000 for just that portion of the street between the grade was charged up to the abutting property, and the company got out of paying that, the agreed case which was G. F. SMITH. the liability having been allowed to drop JAMES FRANEY. to be submitted to the courts to decide unnoticed. The property owners will hardly let the paving be done at their expense, and the company will probably be forced to pay for it the same as like
